Strange End to the Year

During this time, we had an unusual change to our personal lives. We took in a 19 year old deaf lady who is still in high school for several weeks until she went back to her family. It was definitely a learning experience and something we wouldn't do again. I can understand now why it's typical for Pastors to bring people into their homes, only to be taken advantage of. We were very thankful for many wise counsels we received during this time.

Fantastic Saturday

We brought some of our church family to a “Fantastic Saturday”, a deaf event hosted at a hearing church in New Jersey. It was nearly an all day occasion with a lot of preaching involved, the Gospel presented and many exhortations involved. No salvations occurred but many decisions were made. It was great catching up with deaf people from New Jersey and New York.

Thanksgiving fellowship

As we did last year, we had a Thanksgiving potluck and fellowship on the Sunday before Thanksgiving. It was very encouraging to see many of our church contributing to bringing food. The Saturday before, I smoked a whole turkey on my grill for several hours, and made homemade gravy from the smoked drippings. I reheated it

Young lady saved!

One of our folks led his coworker to the Lord over the phone and arranged for us to meet with her at a local coffee shop. Her name is Jasmine, in her early 20's, we spoke with her, getting to know her and asking questions related to her salvation. She is clearly saved, she grew up in a Christian home but wanted to make a decision now. She came to church afterwards but pray for her to become faithful.

Candlelight Service

Christmas Eve fell on a Sunday this year so we had a candlelight service. I preached while holding a candle in one hand, using the candles as an illustration on how when we preach the Gospel to another, and that person becomes saved, the light of the Gospel is passed to them, and so on.

New Year's Eve

Some of our people had no plans and would have to be alone as we entered the new year. We had a few people come over and they were very happy to not have to be alone during this time. We understand how the holidays can be the most depressing time of the year for some. We were happy to be there for them.

Prayer Requests

- For the deaf in Philadelphia to become saved and for their spiritual growth.
- For us to have wisdom in discipling them
